RETAIL MERCHANTS

TO MEET IN PARIS NEXT TUESDAY—OVER TWO HUNDRED DELEGATES ARE EXPECTED TO ATTEND.

Paris will be honored on Tuesday, June 12, by the presence of about 250 delegates representing all lines of retail trade in Central Kentucky, to attend the annual meeting of the Central Kentucky Retail Merchants' Association.

The sessions will be held in the court house. The meeting will be called to order by Pres. D. P. Davis, of Frankfort. After the invocation by Rev. W. E. Ellis, of the Paris Christian church, the following program will be observed:

Address of welcome, by Mr. John J. Williams, Paris; response; report of president; report of secretary and treasurer; report of committees; address, "What Advertising May Mean to the Small Town Merchant," W. G. Simpson, Jr., advertising manager of the Frankfort State Journal; address, "Do We Endorse Cut Price Sales?" Hon. Leon Potcholds, Shelbyville; discussion of topics by members; luncheon-dinner; "Do We Endorse Other Than Conservative Buying Under Present Conditions?" James L. Isenberg, Harrodsburg; address, A. W. McKeand, of the McKeand Publicity Service, Indianapolis, Ind.; new business; election of officers; selection of place of meeting for 1918; benediction by Rev. O. R. Mangum, of Paris Baptist church.

The object of these annual meetings is to promote a better understanding and co-operation for better business methods among the retail merchants of Central Kentucky; to enable merchants to become acquainted with each other; to devise methods of regulating credits and protecting the members against professional beats and impostors, and to make for improved trade conditions all around.

The delegates to the meeting are well known and prominent business men from all sections of Central Kentucky. The organization of the Association was effected a few years ago when conditions in the retail line were such that something had to be done for mutual protection and mutual understanding. The meeting was held last year in Georgetown.

Paris must get busy and make preparations for showing these delegates that we have a live town. They are not "hayseed corner storekeepers," but live, progressive business men who will form their estimate of Paris and Paris people by the nature of the reception given them.

The members of the Paris Business Men's Club are actively at work in the matter of arranging entertainment for the delegates. The hearty co-operation of the people of Paris is urged and expected, if we are to do the right thing.

"Let us then be up and doing." The Reception Committee, who will meet the delegates are composed of the following:

Withers Davis, B. A. Frank, W. R. Blakemore, C. A. McMillan, R. P. Walsh, Edward Prichard, Rudolph Davis, Chas. Goldstein, Charles Wilmoth, Harry Simon, Lawrence Price, E. B. January, Wm. Shire, Oscar T. Hinton, Louis Wollstein, F. P. Lowry and Buckner Woodford, Jr.; Messdames Owen L. Davis, M. H. Dalley, Rudolph Davis, B. A. Frank, Chas. Goldstein and C. A. Teller.

The session will be called to order promptly at ten o'clock a. m. An adjournment will be taken for dinner at the Hotel Windsor. After dinner Judge Denis Dundon will deliver a patriotic speech to the delegates. The afternoon session will begin at two o'clock.

COMPLIMENTS TEACHER FOR BOURBON SCHOOLS

The Cynthiana Democrat says of Miss Sallie Talbott, who was recently selected by the Bourbon County Board of Education as teacher for the Shawhan school:

"Miss Sallie Talbott, of this city, has been elected teacher of the Shawhan school by the Bourbon County Board of Education. Miss Talbott is an experienced teacher of splendid ability, and the Shawhan school is very fortunate in having secured her services."

Claims against the county amounting to $1,683.66, were allowed and ordered paid.

The County Treasurer was ordered to borrow the sum of five thousand dollars for use of the Turnpike Fund, and to execute his note for same, payable January 1, 1918, and bearing interest at the rate of six per cent. from date until paid.

It was ordered that the sum of $30 be paid to Maude Taylor out of the Hamilton Fund upon request of the Hamilton Fund Commissioners.

Ordered that the sum of $60 be paid to Ethel Jones out of the Hamilton Fund.

Ordered that the Court take steps to have the passway at Kennedy's Creek bridge on the Winchester pike, closed.

Ordered that the sum of $150 be appropriated for repairs on the Endicott dirt road, the work to be supervised by S. H. Endicott.

The Road Engineer was instructed to repair culvert in the yard of Robt. Hopkins. The Road Engineer was also instructed to advertise for bids on bridges on the North Middletown pike; to advertise for bids on stationary bin of five hundred tons capacity. The Road Engineer was authorized to sell the old road roller after having a competent man fix value on same in behalf of the county.

The Court adjourned to July 5.

RED CROSS ADDITIONS.

The work of the Red Cross Chapter of Bourbon county goes steadily on, and many new additions to the membership are reported from time to time. Since the last list printed in THE NEWS, the following have taken membership in the organization:

Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Lytle, Frank Lowry, Dr. J. T. Vansant, Lafayette Ardery, Mr. and Mrs. Stanhope Wiedemann, Miss Naomi Bowles Wiedemann, A. L. Boatright, Mr. and Mrs. Logan Howard, Mrs. J. B. Tarr, Miss Elizabeth Tarr, Mrs. Bush T. Bishop, Ed. H. Owings, Major Thomas Owings, Newton Smith and Miss Nell McClintock.

The members of the organization had an active interest in the presentation of the great film play, "Civilization," at the Paris Grand, Monday night. An appeal was made for funds by Dr. Fritz, of Covington, who, as a surgeon in the United States Army, is touring Kentucky on an enlisting campaign. Dr. Fritz's address was an impassioned and eloquent one. Young ladies dressed as Red Cross nurses went among the audience and succeeded in collecting the sum of $100, which will be turned into the fund for supplying equipment, etc., for the Chapter.

LIBERTY LOAN BONDS FIND TAKERS.

There has been a generous response to the Liberty Loan issue in Paris, and in the past few days quite a block of bonds have been sold. Among the recent investors were Allen Gaines, a well-known colored man residing near Paris, who invested a portion of his savings of years, $1,500. Gaines made the statement that, as he had passed the age limit where he could be of service to the Government, he wanted to do the next best thing and help to provide for someone else who could go.

Dr. F. P. Campbell, the veterinarian, purchased one bond for himself, and one each for his wife, and their two children. He expressed the patriotic desire to see all the Liberty Bond allotment in Paris taken up.

Judge E. B. January has been commissioned by the I. O. O. F. lodge of Paris to invest $1,000 of their funds in these bonds, with the privilege of more if desired. The Odd Fellows also desire to contribute in this way in the prosecution of a war that may rid the world of "The Hoenzollerns and the Hapsburgs," who have already been consigned to a warmer climate than this by Marse Henri Watterson, of the Courier-Journal.

Several others have purchased quantities of these bonds, but THE NEWS has not secured a full and complete list.

AUTO CATCHES FIRE; IS TOTAL LOSS.

While going through a gate on his farm near Paris yesterday, Mr. Edward Prichard's auto developed trouble in the electrical connections. Mr. Prichard got out of the machine to ascertain the cause of the trouble. In some unaccountable manner the auto caught fire and was totally destroyed. The machine was insured in Rudolph Davis' agency for $1,000. With Mr. Prichard at the time were Jack Pryor, James L'eter and Sanford Resin.

REGISTRATION IN

BOURBON 1,553

YOUNG MEN OF COUNTY RESPOND TO CALL TO ARMS IN WAR AGAINST GERMAN TYRANNY.

Responding eagerly and willingly to the call to arms in aiding the suppression of tyranny, the "divine right of king," absolutism, autocracy, and the world-wide horror in which "Germany's Madman" has plunged, 1,553 Bourbon county men of the military age, went to the various registration booths in the county Tuesday, and were recorded as patriots.

Registration began at seven o'clock in the morning, and the officials were kept busy until nine o'clock at night. The registration was very different from the registration which takes place annually preliminary to a November election. In the first place only men between the ages of twenty-one and thirty-one, inclusive, were accepted for registration. In the second place, the majority of those who registered did so with the full knowledge of the fact that the registration would be the first step toward military service that will probably terminate on the battlefields of France.

There was no attempt anywhere in the city or county to influence young men against obeying the registration or the drafting law. On the contrary, many a mother, sacrificing the maternal instinct, exhorted their sons to offer their services to their country.

The registration in both city and county exceeded expectations, and it seemed to be spontaneous and without murmur or untoward incident. No one between the specified ages was exempted from registration. In several instances fathers and mothers accompanied their sons to the registration places, and stood proudly though perhaps tearfully by while the process of registration was being conducted. They gave no outward manifestation or sign of fear at the thought that the organization of any army of democracy might bring bereavement to them. One feature of the registration was the refusal of the young men to make any answer to the question: "Do you claim exemption?" They all apparently entered fully into the very spirit of the law, and were content to leave the question of exemption to the future. They only wanted to go willingly on record as being ready to do their share, whatever that might be. The colored people were there in numbers, and did well.

Based on a population basis for the city and county, it is estimated that about seventy-five young men will be taken on the selective draft call for service in the training camps about Sept. 1, at which time they will be wearing the field service uniforms of the United States Army.

The registration figures for the twenty precincts in the county, Paris included, are as follows:

More than 10,000,000 earnest young American enrolled for war service all over the country Tuesday, flinging their answer to the insulting insinuation that we have become a nation of weaklings. Governors of all the States telegraphed that there had been an unexpected response to the call and that everything proceeded quietly.

The manhood of the nation obeyed the President's call and volunteered en masse, setting at naught all the schemes and plotting of German sympathizers and pacifists and the few cranks who had agitated anti-registration. The response was so ready and the situation so clear that all the Governors had their full reports in by Wednesday morning.

Certificates bearing No. 13 were issued to Douglas Clay, Jack Turney, Leo Keller and Harry Collins. The boys are fondly hoping the hoodoo attached to '13 may not strike them. They say it would have been a toss-

Paris is to have an awakening. We need young men of push and enterprise to help along the forward movement. Knowing you to be capable and straight, we call upon you to become candidates for Councilmen from the First Ward.

up if some one of them had been given the No. 23.

A larger percentage of the colored population registered than was expected. In spite of all the rumors about their indifference toward the war situation, they responded just as readily as did the young men of the other color. The registration in precincts Nos. 5 and 6 was especially large.

Of the total number of registrants 1108 were white. Of this number 667 claimed dependent relatives and 441 claimed no exemption from draft. There were 409 colored registrants, of which number 221 claimed dependent relatives, and 188 no exemption from draft.

LATE WAR DISPATCHES.

BRITISH HEADQUARTERS IN FRANCE, June 7.—

The British morning, on the Messines-Wytschaete ridge of the Belgian front, took them well over the ridge, where they are now entrenched. The village of Messines is reported to have been taken early in the fighting. It is also reported that Lenfer and Zareeba have fallen and that Wytschaete have been surrounded by the British storming troops.

The British in their attack to-day used probably 20 per cent. more guns, especially those of heavy calibers, than they employed in the battle of Arras.

More than 1,000,000 pounds of high explosives was blown up under the German forward positions. This, the most gigantic mining operation in the history of war, spread panic among the Germans.

The British also captured important trench positions all the way from Observation ridge, southeast of Ypres, to Poleggtteert wood, north of Armentieres.

WASHINGTON, June 7.—War taxation of publishers' advertising receipts rather than increase of their postage rates was vigorously urged by representatives of national publishing interests at a conference with Senators who are redrafting the War Tax Bill.

LONDON, June 7.—The American steamship Mongolia fired four shots at a German submarine, which discharged a torpedo at the liner. Neither the Mongolia nor the submarine was damaged.

WASHINGTON, June 7.—The State Department has officially announced the sinking of a German submarine by an American vessel, after an hour and a half of the hardest fighting. Thirty-five shots were fired by the submarine, and twenty-five by the American vessel. Shortly after the engagement the German submarine was seen slowly sinking, with the stern in the air, being riddled by the American guns. That the submarine was one of the latest German invention was shown by the fact that it carried two six-inch guns of the disappearing type. The advantage of the battle was at all times with the submarine, but true to the traditions of the American navy the gunners on the American ship stuck to their posts and fired shot after shot until the submarine was sunk, a riddled and battered wreck. It is not known how many lives were lost on board the German vessel.

WASHINGTON, June 7.—American destroyers in European waters have completed their first month of active duty and so far have had no battles with U-boats, but have rendered valuable assistance in patrol work.

MISUNDERSTANDING AS TO RED CROSS COMMITTEES

In everything new there is certain to be some sort of misunderstanding about the workings and more especially is this true of an organization.

There is considerable misunderstanding about the two departments of the Red Cross, a local chapter of which has just been organized in Bourbon county. One department is for military relief and the other is to spend it for relief and to clear up the minds of the people the following is made public by the local organization:

The Department of Military Relief is designed:

"To furnish volunteer aid to the sick and wounded of armies in time of war in accordance with the spirit and conditions of the Conference of Geneva of October, 1863, and also of the Treaty of Geneva of August 22, 1864, to which the United States of America gave its adhesion March 1, 1882."

The Department of Civilian Relief is designed:

"To continue and carry on a system of national and international relief in time of peace and to apply the same in mitigating the suffering caused by pestilence, famine, fire, floods, and other great national calamities, and to devise and carry on measures for preventing the same."

The local chapter of the Red Cross is growing daily and all who have not already become members of the organization should do so at once.

Our Fish Supply.

Officials of the fish and game department of this State are trying hard this season to stock the streams of almost every county better than ever before, and they should have the hearty co-operation of every citizen of Kentucky. Out of the streams of Bourbon county is coming even now as good as may be found anywhere, and food that costs but a few cents. Each fish taken from the streams of the county means a conservation of various other foods that can only be had at war-time prices, and then not in such quantities as we have been used to securing in former years.

In view of the fact that thousands of them right here in Bourbon county, will be enabled to cut the cost of living a good deal during the summer months by eating fish taken from local streams, greater conservation of the finny tribe should be the rule from now on. The smallest fish will sometime, if permitted the freedom of the waters, become large enough to edible size, care should be used in removing it from the hook, and it should be returned to the water immediately. The bucket of minnows still on hand at the close of a day's sport should not be thrown into the grass at the side of the stream. Some of the minnows apparently dead may revive in fresh water, and the contents of the bucket should be emptied into the stream.

Game wardens are guarding against "fish hogs" more closely now than ever before. The man with net and dynamite and lure is coming to be looked upon not only with disrespect, but with hatred by the general public. Taking fish in any way recognized by the statutes of Kentucky as illegal is stealing in the meanest form, and every case, even where there is only cause for suspicion, should be promptly reported. Conservation of fish in the streams of Bourbon county is another form of getting the cost of living back where we'd like to have it.

Male Gossips.

"Don't say that I told you" is an expression not confined to the fair sex entirely, as some have been inclined to believe. All the gossip in Paris doesn't go on at women's clubs. Make a careful survey to-day and you'll find evidence enough to convict a dozen men to each woman found guilty of gossiping.

None of us have yet been able to learn why the women of this country have been credited with doing the major portion of the gossiping. In whispered tones in the office, the store, the factory and daily upon the street, you can find men of the "Don't say that I told you" stripe handing out slander that is in most instances far more damaging than the idle talk which floats about the tables at a bridge whist party or finds its way into the afternoon reception. We're not condoning gossip in any form, nor are we attempting to argue that the class of gossip credited to the fair sex isn't dangerous. We are deploring the fact that it exists at all, anywhere, and wondering just what good purpose it has ever served.

The moment a business man meets with a few reverses you'll find someone ready to magnify conditions a little, and start a new story on its rounds with the preface "Don't say I told you." Many men there are today looking upon the dark side of business life for no other reason than the presence of a few men of the "Don't say that I told you" type.

When a male gossip cannot be detected in any other way you can spot him the moment he begins to impart a little "information" with the request that you not tell anyone where it came from. We may never be able to rid our neighborhood of gossip, but we can prevent a good deal of it by refusing to repeat anything that comes from the "Don't say that I told you" man.

PATRIOTISM.

A nation is made great, not by its fruitful acres, but by the men who cultivate them; not by its great forests, but by the men who use them; not by its mines, but by the men who work in them; not by its railways, but by the men who build and run them. America was a great land when Columbus discovered it; Americans have made of it a great Nation.

In 1776 our fathers had a vision of a new Nation "conceived in liberty and dedicated to the proposition that all men are created equal." Without an army they fought the greatest of existing world empires that they might realize this vision. A third of a century later, without a navy they fought the greatest navy in the world that they might win for their Nation the freedom of the seas. Half a century later they fought through an unparalleled Civil War that they might establish for all time on this continent the inalienable right of life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness. A third of a century later they fought to emancipate an oppressed neighbor, and, victory won, gave back Cuba to Cubans, sent an army of schoolmasters to educate for liberty the Filipinos, asked no war indemnity from their vanished enemy but paid him liberally for his enemy's army. Meanwhile they offered land freely to any farmer who would live upon and cultivate it, opened to foreign immigrants on equal terms the door of industrial opportunity, shared with them political equality, and provided by universal taxation for universal education.

The cynic who can see in this history only a theme for his egotistical satire is no true American, whatever his parentage, whatever his birthplace. He who looks with pride upon this history which his fathers have written by their heroic deeds, who accepts with gratitude the inheritance which they have bequeathed to him, and who highly resolves to preserve this inheritance unimpaired and to pass it on to his descendants, enlarged and enriched, is a true American, be his birthplace or his parentage what it may.

AN UNSHIRKABLE DUTY.

It goes without saying that the good people of Paris and Bourbon county will undoubtedly respond with patriotic ardor to the proclamation of President Woodrow Wilson designating the week ending June 25 as "Red Cross Week," in which all are called upon to "give generously and in a spirit of patriotic sacrifice for the support and maintenance of this work of National need."

As President Wilson points out in this proclamation, "All men, women and children alike may serve, and serve effectively, by making it possible to care properly for those who do serve under arms at home and abroad."

In this war the American Red Cross will be under its supreme test of efficiency. On how it will meet this test will depend, in large measure, the success of our arms. And on how it is supported by the hundred million people at home will its continued efficiency depend.

Patriotic and whole-souled support of the Red Cross is a duty which no one can evade and call himself a true American. The good women of Paris and Bourbon county have certainly done their share in striving to arouse the citizens to the needs of the Red Cross and it is now up to mere man to come across with some of the spare change that he may be devoting to less worthy objects.

THE MOVIE SALESMAN.

"Seeing is believing" and the persuasive traveling salesman nowadays tries to close a deal with a reluctant customer by painting a glowing picture of his "goods" in action, especially if he is selling machinery or kindred products. The salesman of the future will have a better trick than that. The latest device to aid him in making sales is a moving picture projecting outfit packed in a suitcase. Instead of making a verbal agreement, he connects his cinema with an electric light socket and throws on the wall a moving picture of the article he is trying to sell, as it actually works. The machine can also be used to show processes of manufacture, where it is desirable to conceive the customer of their excellence.

If Thomas A. Edison's invention does what we hope and trust it will we move to give him a vacation for life with double pay, and anything else he asks for.

GUARDING A NAVAL SECRET.

How England Cloaked the Building of a New Type of Cruiser.

In Europe extraordinary precautions are taken by all the great powers to mask their military plans, and constant efforts are made to ferret out the military designs of opposing governments. Admiral William S. Sims of the United States navy threw an interesting sidelight on this phase of preparedness when testifying before the house committee.

"To show the extreme importance of this matter of a new type," said Admiral Sims, "when Great Britain first built these vessels (swift and powerful battle cruisers) extraordinary precautions were taken to prevent her possible enemies learning their characteristics. Great Britain had a number of armored cruisers, and Germany had a number of them. Great Britain knew that if she could build a number of these battle cruisers that had battle-ship guns and twenty-eight knot speed—in other words, more speed than any other cruisers in the world and guns stronger than those of any other cruisers—she would thus be away ahead for a long time.

"She laid down three of those vessels. In the estimates they were called armored cruisers, and everybody in the world supposed that simply three more armored cruisers would come out, with ordinary guns, which are 9.2 inch, etc. They were going to mount on these vessels eight twelve-inch guns apiece, and they were going to give them a higher speed.

"You can conceal the speed, of course, while the vessel is building, but it was wholly impossible to conceal the fact that they were building twenty-four twelve-inch guns that could not otherwise be accounted for. Great Britain did not want other nations to know that these were going to be carried by these three cruisers. So they induced Turkey to sign a contract for those guns, and a certain foreign attaché in London paid not less than $14,000, or $70,000, to officials of the companies to get to look at their books and assure himself that the guns were being built for Turkey. Of course they pestered Turkey to find out what she wanted with twenty-four twelve inch guns, but in the meantime the vessels were completed and the guns mounted before foreign nations knew that a radically new type of vessel was in existence.

"The British wanted to get that type out because in any conflict with another navy that did not have similar vessels the British would have a great advantage. Their scouting power was so great and their powers of destruction so great that anything except a battleship was practically helpless before them."—Spokane Spokesman-Review.

Our Poor Record.

The average yield of potatoes in the United States is 113.4 bushels to the acre. In Germany it is 183 bushels. The average yield of wheat here is 15.9 bushels. In Germany it is 32. The yield of oats here is 37.4. In Germany it is 44. The yield of barley is 29.7. In Germany each acre produces thirty-six bushels.

But German fields did not always yield such bountiful crops. Thirty-five years ago Germany raised only 110 bushels of potatoes, nineteen bushels of wheat, twenty-five bushels of oats and twenty-three bushels of barley to the acre. The German soil is poor. The German climate is unfavorable to successful agriculture. Yet by a careful study of the subject of fertilization it has been possible to increase their productivity by 66 per cent.—Philadelphia Ledger.

The Pocket Stage.

It may fairly be claimed that humanity has within the past hundred years found a way of carrying a theater in its pocket, and so long as humanity remains what it is it will delight in taking out its pocket stage and watching the antics of the actors, who are so like itself and yet so much more interesting. Perhaps that is, after all, the best answer to the question, "What is a novel?" It is, or ought to be, a pocket stage. Scenery, light, shade, the actors themselves, are made of words and nothing but words, more or less cleverly put together.—F. Marion Crawford.

Crows and Crops.

The biological survey of the department of agriculture has investigated the relation of crows to man. The essential conclusions are that crows are about equally beneficial and injurious and that they are not so wary and sagacious as not to need legal protection. Lack of this, while not endangering the species, will permit farmers to protect their crops or other property whenever necessary.

BIBLE MUST BE REWRITTEN, SAY GERMANS!

According to a copy of the German newspaper, Kerzeitung, of Berlin, received at The Hague, the Germans are going to re-write the Bible. The article says:

"If any further proof were needed of the immeasurable superiority of the Germans, intellectually and morally, over the rest of mankind, it is to be found in the mental attitude of our people toward the Bible as compared with that of other nations.

"The English regard that book as their most valuable commercial asset, and use it mainly as a form of barter with savage tribes for their good will, their assistance, and the supply of their natural products, and in England itself it is exploited solely in the propagation of that spirit of hypocrisy which has stood the British in such good stead for ages to hoodwink and despoil other races.

"It must be one of our first tasks on the conclusion of this war, when Germany shall arise out of it renewed in power and vitality like another phoenix, to set a board of qualified experts to work to produce, not only for our own benefit, but also for the moral uplifting of mankind, a new, more glorious, a purer Bible, instinct with the German spirit of Kultur and morality."

KENTUCKY DEATH RATE 14.3 PER 1,000 POPULATION.

During January, February, March and April, the death rate in Kentucky was 14.3 per 1,000 of population, as shown by the report of the Bureau of Vital Statistics of the State Board of Health just published. Deaths for the four months, excluding stillbirths, totaled 11,386.

The greater number of deaths, 3,248, was of persons 65 years old and over. Deaths of infants under 1 year totaled 1,937, and those of children from 1 to 5 years totaled 918.

Pneumonia took the largest toll of any disease, 1,639 deaths being charged up to this malady. Tuberculosis claimed the next largest number of victims, 1,512. Measles, which was epidemic in many parts of the State and materially interfered with school attendance, followed third with 539.

Among other deaths attributed to preventable causes were the following: Violence, 449; whooping cough, 121; pellagra, 80; diphtheria, 93; scarlet fever, 13; nontubercular meningitis, 178; typhoid fever, 100; la grippe, 372; smallpox, 2; hydrophobia, 1; malaria, 22; infantile paralysis, 11; syphilis, 394.

THE STATE'S FINANCES.

The balance in the State Treasury at the close of business May 31 was $954,489.95, as follows:

Sinking Fund, $131,921.67; School Fund, $69,888.57; University of Kentucky, $1,394.79; General Expenditure Fund, $751,394.92.

Outstanding, interest bearing warrants May 31, $4,486,857.86; outstanding, interest bearing warrants April 30, $4,259,477.31.

One nice thing about a garden is there isn't a State law against any member of the family hoeing in it.

THE PLEDGE TO THE FLAG.

Flag of our "Great Republic!" hallowed by noblest deeds and loving sacrifice—Guardian of our honor; an inspiration in every battle for the right—whose stars and stripes stand for beauty, purity, truth, patriotism and the Union.

We salute thee and for thy defense, the protection of our country and the conservation of the liberty of the American people, we pledge our hearts, our lives and our sacred honor.

Another nice thing about a farm is just as many as can get on it without crowding can make a living.

MEXICANS WANT TO ENLIST IN U. S. ARMY.

Hundreds of Spanish speaking young men registered at El Paso, Texas, Tuesday. Many are Mexican citizens who will be exempt from military service.

One Mexican, 39 years old, insisted upon being enrolled, declaring he wished to fight for "Tio Samuel (Uncle Sam)."

Four patrolmen guarded the international bridge to prevent slackers from going to Mexico.

The suggestion of a Columbus cartoonist that we "put the hoe in Hohenzollern" isn't out of place.

DOING THEIR DUTY.

Scores of Paris Readers Are Learning the Duty of the Kidneys.

To filter the blood is the kidneys' duty.

When they fail to do this the kidneys are weak.
Backache and other kidney ills may follow.

Help the kidneys do their work.
Use Doan's Kidney Pills—the tested kidney remedy.

Paris people endorse their worth.

Mrs. John Mastin, 1439 High St.,
Paris, says: "I have used Doan's Kidney Pills with very good results and I can tell from the help they were to me that they would be beneficial in other cases of kidney trouble.
I had a dead, dull ache across the small of my back and my kidneys were irregular in action. Doan's Kidney Pills rid me of these complaints and I have faith enough in them so that if I should need a kidney remedy, I would certainly take Doan's."

Price 50 cents, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that

BREAD FROM BUDS.

A great number of substances never before used for the purpose have been tried as breadstuffs since the war scarcity of grains began to make itself felt. Two brothers in Germany are now reported to have perfected a method for making flour from spring buds of lime and beech trees. The flour is said to be about as nutritious as barley and to yield large by-products of fat and animal fodders.
It is estimated that half a million tons of the new flour can be produced annually in Germany. The difficulty is in gathering buds.

SOUR STOMACH.

This is a mild form of indigestion.
It is usually brought on by eating too rapidly or too much, or of food not suited to your digestive organs.
If you will eat slowly, masticate your food thoroughly, eat but little meat and none at all for supper, you will more than likely avoid the sour stomach without taking any medicine whatever. When you have sour stomach take one of Chamberlain's Tablets to aid digestion.

BUSINESS AS USUAL.

The nation is at war and there is no doubt but that the demands on our industries will be heavier in the months to come. Waste must be stopped, and certain economies must be practiced.

However, there is a difference between the curtailment of needless expenditures and hysterical economy which bids people to hoard and refrain from buying the things needed to maintain life decently and comfortably. It is folly at the present time to hoard money regardless of consequences, and it is equally as foolish to buy great stores of food against a remote and theoretical need.

The people of this city and county and the country in general have little cause to worry about the future.
Our national resources are great.
The farms will produce enough to feed the nation, and the manufacturing plants will continue to operate at full capacity.

Everything points to continued industrial, commercial and farming activities. The bulk of the seven billion dollars voted by Congress will be spent in the United States. Locally we have industrial and farming institutions that are clamoring for more men in their various branches, and these institutions will be the means of distributing some of the war expenditures. There will continue to be a steady increase in business here and elsewhere.

It is up to us, people of Paris and Bourbon county, to remain calm, proceed with our usual lines of business activity, and the result will be
—Business As Usual!

"RELIEVED ME OF MY RHEUMATISM"

Franklin County Woman Tells What Tanlac Did.

HER MOTHER ADVISED TONIC

"I have received more genuine relief from Tanlac than from anything else I have ever taken for rheumatic pains," declared Mrs. Fannie Bridges of Thorn Hill precinct, Franklin county, in talking about the benefits she received from Tanlac.

"I suffered from rheumatic pains for several years," she continued, "and my mother, Mrs. Louisa Griggs of Madison county, insisted that I take Tanlac. I at last concluded to try it and took only one bottle. I have received more genuine relief from its use than anything I have ever taken."

Thousands of others have come out publicly and said that Tanlac relieved them of pains and aches. It is a purely vegetable tonic, designed to build up run down people. Sour stomach, which causes bloating and belching, dizzy spells, headaches, sleeplessness and that general tired out feeling, all are signs that the system needs a tonic.

Tanlac can now be bought here
from Varden & Son.

MYSTERIOUS BRUTE.

(Winchester Democrat)

A rival of the famous "Hound of the Baskervilles," in the shape of a wild dog, of the Shepherd type, has been making its home in an obscure spot on the farm of Mr. Field Van-Meter, for the past year. In spite of all endeavors to locate her hiding place, she has thrived and raised a family of her own kind. This mysterious animal has been seen on many occasions, and shot at by some of the best marksmen in Clark county, but she seems to bear a charmed life. She has a wide range, for in the last few days Mr. Bedford discovered her and some of her offsprings among the sheep on Mr.
Tom Henry Clay's farm. He went for a gun and succeeded in killing three of the young dogs, but the old one escaped. Mr. Ben Douglas Goff lost several sheep a few nights ago and several others in the neighborhood have complained of losses in their flocks.

WHOOPIING COUGH.

In this disease it is important that the cough be kept loose and expectoration easy, which can be done by giving Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.
Mrs. J. H. Martin, Peru, Ind., writes,
"My two daughters had whooping cough. I gave them Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and it worked like a charm."

TOURMALINES.

The Tourmaline Mines of Maine in the region of Mount Mica, which first won for America a place in the world's gem market, are still productive especially fine green stones being taken from them. The mines were found in 1881 by two boys who were prospecting more for the fun of it than with the expectation of finding anything. They picked up about thirty very fine gems in one day.
These subsequently were stolen and are said to have first reappeared in the royal cabinet at Vienna.

CLERK INVENTS DEVICE TO STOP CROSSING ACCIDENTS.

Green D. Poole, clerk in the Southern railway depot at Taylorsville, S.
C., claims to have made a substantial contribution to the movement for the conservation of human life through the invention of a device which will positively prevent accidents to automobiles at grade crossings. The working of the attachment is simple and is explained by inventor Poole as follows:
"While the car is running fifteen miles per hour a white bulb shows on the radiator; at twenty-five miles, a green bulb, and when the driver begins to 'bat' 'em out around 60 per a music box under the seat begins to play 'Nearer, My God, To Thee!'"

SENATE'S WAR TAX ON MOTOR VEHICLES

A war license tax schedule on motor vehicles to raise $41,000,000 in revenue, to be paid by owners of cars not used exclusively for business purposes, was agreed upon by the Senate Finance Committee. The rates fixed were: Motorcycles, $2.50; automobiles costing up to $500, $7.50; costing between $500 and $1,000, $10; costing between $1,000 and $2,000, $15; costing between $2,000 and $3,000, $20, and costing over $3,000, $25. SAVES DROWNING BOY.

Prompt action on the part of Howard Cherry, fourteen years old, saved the life of eleven-year-old John VanMeter Woodford, Tuesday, as he boy was near death by drowning.

A picnic was being given on the banks of Stoner Creek by Miss Detwiler, a member of the Paris High School faculty, to her pupils, near the site of the Chippewa Club's old quarters. Young Woodford, while not one of the pupils, was present by special invitation. During the afternoon while playing with a group of boys and girls he got in a row-boat near the edge of the creek, which some mischievous boy untied and set adrift. There were no oars in the boat, leaving the boy at the mercy of the current, which was very swift at that point. He attempted to jump into another boat, but missed his object and fell into the deep water, going under twice.

Cherry, who was on the bank nearby, realizing the Woodford boy's danger, quickly shed his clothes and swam to the rescue. Being a good swimmer and strong for his age, he soon reached the exhausted lad, who was going down for the third time, and pluckily brought him, half-dead, to the bank. Restorative measures were quickly used and the boy brought back from the edge of the unseen world into which, but for the Cherry boy's bravery, he would surely have gone.

Young Woodford was taken to the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Woodford, near Paris, where he was soon all right again. Commendation of Cherry's presence of mind and his bravery may ultimately reach the Carnegie Hero Fund Commission and result in well-merited recognition. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Cherry, of Paris.

RESIGNS POSITION.

Mr. Ullman Lancaster, Chief of the Paris Fire Department and City Electrician, has resigned his position, to take effect at the next Council meeting. Mr. Lancaster stated that at the meeting he would give reasons for his action, which would be in the nature of a sensation. It is hinted that dissensions of a serious nature have arisen in the department, and that some sensational developments are on the tapis.

BOX SUPPER.

A box supper will be given in the Spears Mill Baptist Church to-night, the proceeds to be used for the benefit of the school. A small admission price will be charged. The public is cordially invited to attend.

S. school paper, "Everystudent."

THE LITTLEJOHN COMPANY

The Littlejohn Company, which "came to town" Sunday, has had a fair share of patronage, despite uncertain weather conditions. The shows are all clean and of a high order of merit. One of the principal attractions is the Plantation Show, also the one-ring circus, which are the center of attraction on the ground.

As a testimonial to the clean character of the Littlejohn Shows we re-print a letter from the Attorney-General of Tennessee, and the Mayor of Dayton, Tennessee, where the Company filled an engagement recently:

Dayton, Tenn., April 28, 1917.
TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:—
This is to state voluntarily that Littlejohn's United Shows have just completed a week's engagement in Dayton, Tenn., and beyond question was one of the very best and cleanest of its kind on the road that has ever exhibited in Dayton.

Mr. Littlejohn, the genial manager, is a splendid, clean, upright gentleman, and we feel no hesitancy in commending him and his shows to the public.

Respectfully,
B. G. McKENZIE,
Attorney-General 18th Circuit Tenn.
A. P. HAGGON,
Mayor of Dayton, Tenn.

MR. CHRISTMAN FOR COUNCILMAN

In this issue of THE NEWS Mr. John Christman the well-known florist of Twentieth street, announces his candidacy for Councilman from the First Ward, on the Democratic ticket.

Mr. Christman is a man of large experience in business affairs, a man of ripe judgment, and one whose occupancy of the office would be to the good interest of the people whom he would serve. He has announced no set platform, but it is certain that he would devote his time and talents to watching carefully the best interests of his constituency. During his residence in Paris, Mr. Christman, by his just and upright business record and dealings, has shown that he would be just as careful and conscientious in the public service as he has been in his private business.

ELECTED BOOKKEEPER.

Mr. John Yerkes, who has for some years been in charge of the books for the Bourbon Garage & Supply Co., on Main street, has been selected by the Board of Directors of the Farmers' & Traders' Bank, of this city, as bookkeeper and assistant cashier, to fill the vacancy caused by the recent resignation of Mr. Will Grimes, who has gone to farming.

Mr. Yerkes is a son of Prof. and Mrs. W. L. Yerkes, and has had an excellent business training. He is very popular among the business men of Paris, and will make a most valuable addition to the working force of the bank.

Some fellows work through the week as though they were conserving their energy for Sunday morning snores.

The Maysville papers report a farmer residing near there with a hen addicted to laying double-yolk eggs. That's real patriotism.

REAL ESTATE DEALS.

The Paris Realty Co., has purchased of Henry S. Caywood and Wm. G. McClintock, of this city, their unimproved farm of seventy-five acres, on the Clintonville pike, near Paris, at a private price. The place adjoins the farms of Mr. Clarence Wright and Mr. Gus Christman.

The Realty Company sold to Mr. George W. Stuart an unimproved tract of land located on the Clintonville pike, near Paris, known as the Thompson farm, at a private price. Mr. Stuart will convert the place into a monster garden for the production of beans of the navy and seed variety.

Mr. L. B. Reid, of West Liberty, who has been visiting in Paris this week, sold to Messrs. Henry Caywood and Isaac Reynolds, the Reid farm on the Stony Point pike, near Paris, at a private price. Mr. Reid's son, who had been in charge of the farm, has enlisted in the army, making it necessary for his father to dispose of the place.

Immediate possession has been given to the new owners of the property.

OPEN HOUSE AT Y. M. C. A.

The public is most cordially invited to attend the open house entertainment which will be given on Monday evening, June 11, at the Y. M. C. A. building.

It is not generally known by the public that the Board of Directors conducted a quiet campaign this spring and raised the entire indebtedness of this institution. The celebration Monday evening will be on account of this fact. The entire arrangements are in the hands of the ladies, social committee and no trouble is being spared to make this the most enjoyable social occasion of the season.

An orchestra from Lexington will furnish the music. Probably one of the most interesting feature of the evening will be an exhibition of swimming by a class of boys.

No personal invitations will be sent out, but all the people of Paris and Bourbon county, who are at all interested in this institution, are most cordially invited to come and bring every member of the family. The hours are from eight to ten.

Judge E. B. January, Chairman of the I. O. O. F. Hall Committee, was instructed at the same meeting to arrange for the purchase of $1,000 worth of Liberty Loan Bonds, and more if occasion requires, for account of the lodge.

K. OF P.'S ELECT.

At the recent meeting of Rathbone Lodge No. 12, Knights of Pythias, held in their Castle Hall, at the corner of Main and Third streets, the following officers were elected to serve for the ensuing term:

Mangum, Trustees.

At a meeting of the lodge, held last night, arrangements were perfected for attending the meeting at the Pythian Home, in Lexington, next Sunday, June 10, which is an annual event in Pythian circles. This will be the fourth annual trip to be made by the local lodge.

The Uniform Rank and the subordinate lodge have made arrangements for holding a Pythian Memorial Day service at the Paris Cemetery on Sunday, June 17.

FINE RECORD.

Mr. Eli Friedman, son of Mr. and Mrs. B. Friedman, of this city, who has been a student at the University of Kentucky, has the unusual distinction of gaining the grade of "A" in all his studies in the final examination for the second semester. This is the highest possible grade, and firmly establishes Mr. Friedman as one of the brightest students in the University. He is a graduate of the Paris High School, where he distinguished himself by securing a general average of one hundred per cent. on several occasions.

LIGHTNING STROKE KILLS COWS.

During the electrical storm which prevailed over this section Wednesday night, nine cows and a calf were struck by a bolt of lightning on the farm of Mr. Charlton Clay, on the Winchester pike near Paris. The animals had sought shelter under a tree and were killed instantly.

UGHT TO BE PUT ON THE FIRING LINE!

Things were getting rather dull and monotonous around the registration booth in Precinct No. 2, Tuesday about noon, as the inflow of young patriots had slowed up somewhat. Suddenly there appeared a shadow in the doorway, and a husky young railroader edged his way into the booth.

The usual questions were put to him, to all of which he gave satisfactory replies, until the question was asked him: "Are you native-born?" The young man scratched his cranium as if mentally debating the meaning of the question, and then, as if playing for "safety first," replied, very guardedly: "No sir. I was born in Cynthiana." He was enlightened, and retired looking rather sheepish.

NOTED ORATOR TO SPEAK HERE

Roscoe Conkling Simmons, noted negro orator, and nephew of the late Booker T. Washington, will deliver the commencement address of the Western High School, at the Paris Opera House, Tuesday night, June 12, 1917. This noted speaker delivered his famous address on "Patriotism," on Cheapside, Lexington, a few days ago, to a crowd estimated at 3,000 people.

Two whole sections of the right hand side of the lower floor will be reserved for white people.

B-4 FIRE Insure with W.O. HINTON & SON, Agts

RESIDENCE BURNED.

Fire destroyed the residence of Mr. and Mrs. O. T. Sauls, on the Oddville pike, a few miles from Cynthiana, together with nearly all the household goods. The fire originated from a defective flue. Mr. Sauls was engaged in painting one side of the house while the other side was burning, not knowing of the danger until the fire almost reached him. The fire had then gained such headway that very little could be saved. Mr. Sauls held insurance on his home amounting to $1,300, which will only partly cover his loss.

Fire, wind and lightning insurance.
Thomas, Woodford & Bryan

BIG FIRE AT OLIVE HILL.

Fire which originated in a defective flue in a Main street residence at Olive Hill, on the C. & O., swept through the entire city, destroying the business section of the place, and almost destroyed the residence section. Olive Hill is in Carter county, about sixty-five miles from Winchester.

The buildings destroyed were occupied by thirty business firms. The Stamper Hotel, Carter County Commercial Bank, the People's Bank, the postoffice and the telephone exchange were included. The loss is estimated at about $75,000, with insurance of about $15,000.

Y. M. C. A. BOY SCOUTS.

Mr. R. Herndon Waller, of the Bourbon County Y. M. C. A., has organized a detachment of Boy Scouts from the members of the institution, and is acting as their drillmaster. The boys are being drilled regularly by one of the officers of the National Guard on duty in Paris.

FOR COUNCILMAN.

We are authorized to announce JOHN CHRISTMAN as a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Councilman from the First Ward of the city of Paris, subject to the action of the voters in the State primary election, Saturday, August 4, 1917.

AN UNFOUNDED REPORT.

Somebody, somewhere in Bourbon county, has set afloat a report that Congress is proposing to tax each acre of tobacco produced this year, and in years to come, the sum of $25.00.

There has never been such a proposition before Congress, as far as can be learned, according to a well-posted Paris tobacco dealer, and certainly it would not be enacted. Let no tobacco grower be disturbed by this canard, which was evidently started for obvious reasons.

THINGS TO WORRY ABOUT

Almost a riot was started on the streets yesterday when one of the village "cut-ups" approached a group of Paris merchants near the Peoples-Deposit Bank with the query: "What are soldiers doing guarding the Public Library?" The bunch immediately became interested and took the hook, sinker and all when their curiosity could stand the strain no longer. "Why," said the joker, "They found 'bombs' and 'ammunition' in the dictionary."

WESTERN UNION OFFICE MOVED ONE SQUARE.

The office of the Western Union Telegraph Co., in Paris, which for years has been in the small room adjoining the Harry Ogden jewelry store, has been moved to the room adjoining Daugherty Bros., recently occupied as a barbershop.

The new location is just one square east of the old location. The office has been handsomely fitted up, and makes cozy and complete quarters for the popular manager, Mr. J. R. McDonald. "Mc" is so proud of the new place he contemplates taking up a permanent residence there.

NO MORE NATURAL BRIDGE EXCURSIONS.

General Agent W. V. Shaw, of the Louisville & Nashville, is in receipt of a letter from the General Passenger Agent of the road, advising him to notify the public through the press that after the excursion from Cincinnati to Natural Bridge next Sunday, June 10, no more Sunday excursions will be run between those points.

The Sunday excursion from Stanford, Lexington and Maysville via Paris will continue all through the season as usual. If conditions change and the Natural Bridge excursion are resumed, due notice will be given the public through the papers.

It is presumed that the road is conserving its passenger rolling stock in anticipation of orders for moving troops to and from the mobilization camps.

LAND OF INFINITE DETAIL

Japanese Farmers Produce Several Crops in Small Space.

Japan might well be called the land of infinite detail. Perhaps nowhere on earth may one see detail carried to such extremes as in that land, where every available square foot of soil must be made to yield every possible return. Farms of one or two acres producing six, eight, ten or a dozen different crops are common sights, the soil being fertilized and handled in such a manner as to bring results in every month of the year.

One peasant who obtained some overflowed land turned what in this country would be waste ground to profit. Converting the marshy overflow into ponds, he bred and raised snapping turtles, which in Japan are considered as much of a delicacy as diamond back terrapin here. The farm now produces tens of thousands of the snapping turtles annually, these being shipped to Tokyo and Yokohama markets by the ton.

Japan has also a pearl oyster farm. In the bay of Argo there has been established a plantation from which a harvest is obtained.

In May or June stones weighing from six to eight pounds are sunk in shallow water, and in August the tiny shells begin to appear on them. The stones remain for two months, but since the young oysters cannot endure cold in November all rocks in less than five feet of water are moved farther out, where the temperature is more even. At the end of three years, when the shells are about two inches across, they are taken from the water, nuclei for pearls inserted in them and replaced in the water, thirty of them to every six square feet of bottom.

There they are left for four years. Then, being seven and a half years old, they are removed and searched for pearls.—Washington Star.

HOUSING THE MOTORCAR.

Some Advice on Building and Fitting Up a Practical Garage.

"The size of the garage depends upon the size of the car it is to be used for," says C. H. Claudy in the Woman's Home Companion. "A convenient size for most cars is 14 by 18 feet. This will usually give plenty of room to work around the car. Shelf room is essential and should be all along one side, seven feet high and one foot wide. On the other side have plenty of nails for hanging things on. At the rear end, above the door, have a shelf wide enough to hold spare outer tires. At each rear corner have a three cornered closet for old clothing, etc. At the front corners have several three cornered shelves set in.

"A workbench is an essential feature. This should be built near a window, so that there will be abundance of light. Make the workbench of two inch boards and have it as large as space will permit. Do not have the supports, or legs, come down straight to the floor, as they will be in the way, but slant them back to the wall. Make drawers to slide under the bench for holding nails, tools, etc. A tool chest of common and useful tools under the bench is a good friend. Have two electric light extensions; also a hand electric searchlight.

"A life saving equipment is a length of garden hose that will fit over the exhaust pipe of your engine. When the engine is running, with doors and windows shut, fit one end of the hose over the exhaust pipe and put the other end outside through a hole previously made for that purpose. This may prevent you from being asphyxiated, as the gas from the exhaust is very poisonous and has been known to cause death."

Colombia—the Hebrew Republic. Colombia is the runaway daughter of Spain. She is twice as large as her mother—and many times as promising. And it may surprise you to learn that the most progressive element in Colombia is not the Spanish population or the natives, but a Jewish people called Antioquians, who have Old Testament names, raise families of from twelve to thirty children and are fast becoming the dominant power in the land, both in numbers and influence. Colombia is the great Jewish republic of the near future.—Dan Ward in World Outlook.

A Stump Jump Plow. In western Australia they use a special type of plow called the "stump jump," on account of the fact that nearly all the areas susceptible of cultivation in that region are heavily wooded, and the land cannot be cleared of stumps and roots because of the dearth and high cost of labor. The stump jump plow, which is the invention of an Australian, is so made that it will roll over stumps and other obstructions lying on the ground.

Gardening. The way to keep up the interest in gardening is not to do the same thing year after year. That is monotonous. Try the new fruits, vegetables and flowers. Hold to the old, tried and true for mainstays, if desired, until the new prove that they are what is wanted to entirely displace older varieties.—New York Sun.

Sizes. "I wish a ton of coal, please." "Yes, madam. What size?" "Dear me, I didn't know coal came in sizes. I wear a No. 3 shoe and a No. 6 glove."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

An Instance of Woman's Superiority. No man ever dared tell the truth about women; only a woman can do it.—E. W. Howe's Monthly.

ERADICATION OF SWEET CLOVER

Some farmers hesitate to plant sweet clover on their farms for fear they will have difficulty in eradicating it when the fields are planted to other crops. The results obtained annually by hundreds of farmers are sufficient proof that there is no foundation for such fear; in fact, farmers are experiencing much difficulty in cutting the first crop the second season so high that the plants will not be killed. The new crop of sweet clover, unlike that of red clover and alfalfa must come from the buds left on the stubble, so when the plants are cut below these buds they will be killed. As sweet clover is a biennial, the plants die as soon as the seed crop is produced.

When the first year's growth of sweet clover is to be turned under for green manure it is recommended that the field be plowed after the plants have made some growth the following spring rather than in the fall of the year of seeding. When the first year's growth is plowed under the same fall many of the plants will not be entirely covered, and these will make a vigorous growth the following spring. When the plowing is delayed until the plants have made some growth the following spring not trouble will be experienced in eradicating them.

THE EVILS OF CONSTIPATION.

Constipation is one of the main reasons why the average human life is below 40 years. Leaving waste material in the body, poisons the system and blood and makes us liable to sick headaches, biliousness, nervousness and muddy skin. When you note these symptoms, try Dr. King's New Life Pills. They give prompt relief, are mild, non-gripping in action, add tone to your system and clear the complexion. At your druggist, 25c.

THE USE OF THE LIBERTY LOAN.

To the American citizen who gives some consideration to features of his investments other than the mere money raised by the sale of the Liberty Loan Bonds is to be devoted will prove a patriotic inducement to purchase such bonds. A certain dignity attaches to money invested in a high and noble cause.

The Liberty Loan is made by the United States Government to purchase arms and equipment for American soldiers and sailors, food and supplies for the American Army and Navy. The money is to be spent in America for those Americans who are fighting America's battles on land and sea.

Part of the money raised by the sale of Liberty Loan Bonds is to be loaned to our allies; this, too, is to be expended in America. It is to be spent for food and supplies for the Armies of our allies fighting on our side on the various fronts in Europe. It is America's first contribution towards doing her part in the war work engaged in.

It is billions for defense in the world-war. Autocracy is waging against Democracy, but not one cent for tribute.

CANDIDATES WARNED OF NEW "CORRUPT PRACTICE ACT."

It is highly important for candidates for office in Kentucky to familiarize themselves with the provisions of the "Corrupt Practice Act," passed by the Legislature of 1916.

It is compulsory that each candidate file with the County Clerk or proper official an itemized statement of expenses incurred during his campaign, such as printing, stationery, stamps, stenographers, rent for public halls for speaking, and all other expenses incurred pertaining to his election. Such papers must be filed fifteen days before the primary, and also fifteen days before the regular election.

The penalty for failing to comply with this law, is a fine in any sum not to exceed $5,000, or to be confined in the county jail not to exceed six months, or both.

The BOURBON NEWS has been appointed as agent in Bourbon county to handle and sell the Thomas Kentucky Election Forms, which are used for this purpose. With these forms it is no trouble to keep an accurate account of expenditures, etc. These forms are reserved and protected by law by the Cadiz Record, of Cadiz, Ky.

All candidates are required to make these statements, and the easiest and best way is to purchase one of these forms now. The price is $1.50. Come in and see one, and give us your order. We have samples to show, but will have to send in orders to Cadiz for stock. We are going to send in an order next week. Let yours come with the rest.

RIGID EXAMINATION FOR TUBERCULOSIS.

Dr. J. H. Elliott, of Toronto, who has had charge of the tubercular soldiers returned from the war front to Canada, said before the meeting of the National Association for the Study and Prevention of tuberculosis, which met in Cincinnati last week, that the most rigid examination of recruits should be made for the disease and none accepted for the army who had even a slight tendency to the disease, as the stress and griefs of war would develop it very quickly. When France hurriedly mobilized her army, very little attention was paid to the examination for tuberculosis and the result is that fully 150,000 soldiers have been invalided home with the disease to further spread it unless the utmost caution is observed. He also gave it as his opinion that before the war is over 500,000 soldiers would have become incapacitated from the disease. England has profited much by France's sad experience and observes the greatest care in the examination of recruits by the most expert physicians obtainable. The Kentucky Tuberculosis Commission, with Dr. W. L. Heizer as Executive Secretary at Frankfort, is now engaged in taking a full survey of the doctors of the State with a view of producing experts in tuberculosis to see that no man with tendency to the disease is accepted for the army to become when it is developed a tax on its resources and a menace to his comrades.

LAMPTON'S LAST POEM.

The last contribution to the press by Col. Wm. J. Lampton, noted Kentucky writer and poet, who died suddenly in New York last week, appeared in Wednesday's issue of the New York Herald, the same day he died. The poem was as follows:

"THE FLAG IN SIGHT."

"Go, fling the Starry Banner out in nationwide display and fix it fast, nailed to the mast, for it has come to stay! Go, fling it to the skies, where all may see that Liberty rejoices as it flies! Go, fling the Starry Banner out! Go, fling it forth on high that it may shine along the lines as Freedom marches by! Go, fling the Starry Banner out, to pass the word along to all the world that it's unfurled against the Prussian wrong! Go, fling the Starry Banner out, announcing that its call shall always be Equality for men and women—all! Go, fling the Starry Banner out, the emblem of the free! By right divine the living sign of world democracy!"

"W. J. LAMPTON."

FASHION AT THE BEACHES

WOOL JERSEY AND SATIN ARE THE LEADING MATERIALS USED.

BATHING SUIT ACCESSORIES.

NEW YORK, June 7, 1917. Yellow sands and cool, breezy shores will very soon begin to draw the usual crowds that flock to the seaside in the summer months.

This season sees the bathing suits carrying out the same colorful note that predominates in all sports clothes, and in materials there is also a similarity, namely, in the use of one of the most favored of fabrics—wool jersey. This versatile material seems to make itself at home in any sphere. After having made its importance felt in sports clothes, one-piece frocks and semi-formal suits, the bathing suit has been lately added to its conquests. Yet, other materials compare very favorably with jersey cloth at the fashionable beaches. Black satin has lost none of its usual charms; taffeta, mohair, are mostly of the kind that is slipped on over the head, with an opening only at the neck. Some of the newest ones are knitted to fit closely at the waist, with the top and the lower part knit more openly. They are usually hip length. Knitted in silk, these look more like waists than sweaters. Orange, rose, light green and royal blue are very prominent colors, sometimes relieved by white linen, gabardine, flannel or silk skirts.

There is a wonderful variety of separate skirts for sports wear and general use. The models are box pleated, side pleated, gathered or plain, cut in two or three pieces, and generally carrying large pockets.

CHOLERA MOREUS.

This is a very painful and dangerous disease. In almost every neighborhood someone has died from it before medicine could be obtained or a physician summoned. The right way is to have a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy in the house so as to be prepared for it. Mrs. Charles Eneyart, Huntington, Ind., writes: "During the summer of 1911 two of my children were taken sick with cholera morbus. I used Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy and it gave them immediate relief."

Enhaut, Pa.—"I was all run down and weak inwardly. I had female troubles and nervous feelings and my head bothered me. I would often have crying spells and feel as if I was not safe. If I heard anyone coming I would run and lock the door so they would not see me. I tried several doctors and they did not help me so I said to my mother 'I guess I will have to die as there is no help for me.' She got me one of your little books and my husband said I should try one bottle. I stopped the doctor's medicine and took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It soon made a change in me and now I am strong and do all my work."—Mrs. AUGUSTUS BAUGHMAN, Box 86, Enhaut, Pa.

Black Satin Bathing Suit with Band of Striped Satin

alpaca and poplin still retain their popularity; and the rubberized cloths are likewise favored to a great extent.

If the one-piece slip-on frocks have been a success in our every-day life, the same style adapted to bathing suits is still more successful. One could ask for nothing more practical than the one-piece bathing dress worn over bloomers, and to it may be added all the prevailing fashion features. There are suits of this type decorated with embroidery, with deep trimming bands, large pockets, and with girdles arranged according to the latest whims of Fashion.

Following out one of the late styles in skirts is the bathing suit illustrated with deep band at the lower part. This band is stitched at the front and back, but the sides are loose to give the effect of bulging pockets or an adaption of the barrel idea which is still exploited by certain designers. This suit is of black satin with the band of striped satin.

The second sketch shows a chemise bathing suit fashioned of wool jersey with a trimming of braid, and the pointed pockets and long, soft girdle which are featured again and again in the frocks of the hour.

White Turkish toweling with a light blue border trims a dark blue taffeta suit very effectively, forming the sailor collar and a band at the edge of the skirt. White pique and tussur silk collars appear on many suits, and braid is a very popular trimming.

Bathing Suit Accessories.

A complete bathing outfit by no means ends with the selection of the suit. Beach wraps, hats and caps, shoes and stockings, are quite as important. There are sets of matching hats, shoes and huge bags which are considered very smart. Rubberized silks in plain colors, as well as striped and flowered effects, are especially attractive for the beach wraps, which are usually made with very large collars.

In hats and caps, the choice lies between round sailors with straight brims and rather high crowns, and the small close-fitting rubber caps. Tam-o'-shanters and the Chinese-shaped hats are also seen a great deal. On many hats and caps there are novel ornaments of rubber in bright contrasting colors.

Some New Sweaters.

To be without a sweater at the sea-shore is almost as bad as being without a bathing suit. The knitted wool sweaters made with body and sleeves in one seems to be at the height of popularity just now. They

"Mr. and Mrs. John F. McDaniel invite you to be present at the marriage of their daughter, Kizzie May, to Mr. Charles Reid Carrington, on Wednesday afternoon, June twentieth, nine o'clock, at the Methodist Church, Millersburg, Kentucky."

These cards are issued to out-of-town friends, no invitations being given in Millersburg. All friends of the contracting parties are cordially invited to be present. They found a well-filled pantry, a new lawn swing and the piano from the Graded school, which had been set in the home for the summer, awaiting them. The pantry supplies consisted of pies, cakes, cooked ham, preserves, catsup, pickles and canned goods. Rev. and Mrs. Goldsmith were induced to leave the home without knowing why it was done, and when they returned their surprise was genuine, inasmuch as they had no previous knowledge of the good fortune awaiting them.

"THE FIGHTING FIRST" CALLS FOR RECRUITS.

(By Capt. H. B. Kinsolving, Jr., 1st Regt., Ky. National Guard.)

Kentuckians between the ages of twenty-one and thirty-one, inclusive, have been called to the colors. They have already registered for that service. They will be selected, beginning Sept. 5, to perform the highest duty which is incidental to their citizenship.

Kentuckians, likewise all Americans, have thought of citizenship only in terms of rights, privileges, licenses. Never has that reciprocal term, duty, seemed to impress them with its full significance. They speak feelingly of their inalienable, constitutional rights and privileges—never of their duties!

Who guaranteed to them the privileges they boast? Who shed their life-blood that they, to-day might be freed? Who made America safe for democracy during the past one hundred and forty-one years of her glorious history? Who made the name of Kentucky respected in every civilized country on the face of the earth? Think, Kentuckians, what duty do you of to-day owe to posterity!

France has furnished us a splendid example. Her sons of to-day by their valor and heroic sacrifice have written another glorious page in history for liberty, equality and fraternity.

Democracy has joined with autocracy. It is war to the bitter end. Kentuckians must sense that fact and immediately respond by joining the colors.

You have the opportunity now. "The Fighting First," Kentucky's First Infantry Regiment, has its representatives at the Sheriff's office in Paris. Capt. H. B. Kinsolving, an old Montgomery county boy, Sergeant Richard Freeman and Sergeant A. Y. Cullen are at the office from seven o'clock in the morning to ten o'clock at night to accept candidates for enlistment.

STOCK, CROP, ETC.

—Caywood, Smith & McClintock sold to Clarence Wright a pair of extra nice four-year-old mare mules for $521. They purchased a five-year-old mule from John Smith, of near Paris, for $200.

FARMING CONDITIONS.

The present outlook for farmers in some sections of Bourbon county is somewhat discouraging. The continued rains and the absence of much-needed sunshine are the principal factors operating against them. Storms of wind, rain and hail in the past weeks have gasped and washed the earth, undoing much of the work the farmers had so carefully done, and which will take them some time to repair.

In many sections of the county tobacco plant beds were totally destroyed, as they were completely covered by the dirt blown and washed over them by the storm. This will greatly curtail the acreage of tobacco to be planted in this county.

Many farmers took advantage of the favorable weather following the storms and commenced the setting out of tobacco plants. Most of them found their corn ground so torn up that it has required replanting.

During the past few days the bluegrass pastures have grown considerably and it is believed that there will be a fifty per cent. production of the staple. The hay and timothy fields, which two or three weeks ago presented a rather bad appearance, have come out considerably, and it is now believed that there will be a good production.

Gardeners are getting along as well as they can under unfavorable weather and other conditions, and are making the utmost endeavors to increase their production this year.

PARISIAN GETS MERITED PROMOTION.

As a fitting reward for his conscientious and efficient three-years' service, Mr. Emerson Galloway, who has been stationed in the Philippines in the employ of the United States Government, has received a promotion to the position of first assistant chief of the fiber division of the Bureau. The recommendation was made by Chief Boyle, after considering the names of several others whose records were good, also.

Mr. Galloway is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Grant Galloway, of near Paris. He is a graduate of the Paris High School and of the College of Agriculture of the University of Kentucky. The Manila Times, published at Manila, P. I., where Mr. Galloway is stationed in the service, pays him a fine tribute.

According to the Bible, the people once hoarded manna and it spoiled on their hands. Let us trust that history is still capable of repeating itself.

JOINT EFFORT TO INCREASE SUPPLIES.

With the view of increasing the production and stimulating interest in conservation of all food supplies raised, while at the same time instilling the lesson of practical patriotism, Hon. W. C. G. Hobbs, president of Knights of Pythias Widows' and Orphans' Home, located near Lexington, has addressed a letter to Superintendent George Moore, suggesting that the boys and girls of the Home be enlisted in a friendly patriotic contest, in growing vegetables and other food products, on the Home farm this year. President Hobbs hopes that the Pythian lodges in other sections of the State, will follow out the suggestion, and boost the Home garden movement in their various communities.

The Pythian Home farm comprises 107 acres, and under the able management of Superintendent Moore, has been able during the past few years, to make a splendid showing in the matter of vegetable production for use of the inmates. There are 85 children, besides the supervisors and helpers, at the Home, and President Hobbs believes that with the interest aroused by such a contest as he suggests, there will be a largely increased production of food stuffs on the farm.

A CORK FABRIC.

The war has cut down the supply of standard fabrics, but European chemists have met the situation in part by inventing new ones. Stories of grass clothes in the European markets are numerous, but underwear manufactured from new waterproof material made of cork is even more remarkable. The latter is of particularly great value since the price of rubber has become so high. It is made by treating thin slices of cork with chemical baths to remove the brittle substances and then gluing them to cloth. The result is a fabric so flexible that it may be rolled up, and so close in texture that it affords efficient protection against the rain and also against the heat of the sun—at least, such are the claims for it.

FIREPROOF AEROS.

One of the greatest dangers to the war fliers is that they will be set on fire by shrapnel or incendiary bullets. W. R. Weeks has written a letter to the Aero Club of America stating that this difficulty has been overcome by the invention of a liquid chemical compound which will make the wooden and canvas parts of the machine absolutely fireproof. If this invention is all that is claimed for it, one of the greatest dangers has been removed from flying, not only in war but in peace, for there is always danger that the machine may catch fire from the engine.

DRUGGISTS' ASSOCIATION MEET IN LOUISVILLE.

Several of the local druggists will go to Louisville next week to attend the sessions of the Kentucky Pharmaceutical Association, which convenes there on June 19 for a three-days' business and social meeting. Dr. Elbridge Snapp, of the Brooks Drug Co., is a member of the Committee on Co-operation and Interchange of Ideas, and Dr. L. Oberdorfer is a member of the Executive Committee of the Association.
